FLY: Taking Initiative | Career Progression | careers

01

Initiative means acting on a need or opportunity before an instruction arrives.

02

It can improve your own work, a team or a community through a small, practical step.

03

A habitual chalta hai response lowers standards and encourages apathy.

04

Fear can stop useful action. Avoiding every risk also carries a cost.

05

Leadership needs direction and movement. Initiative starts the movement.

06

Ask what proportionate, responsible step you can take now.
