Tactics to Encourage Contributions | Equitable Participation and Biases | dei

01

Participation cards create a low-pressure route for every student to signal.

02

Wait time gives students room to process before the instructor moves on.

03

Thumbs-up responses provide a quick whole-class check.

04

Equity sticks can expose habitual calling patterns and widen invitations.

05

Preparation and a respectful pass option protect the quality of cold-calling.

06

Track who speaks and include written, paired and digital contributions.
